Bishop's Castle.—The singular return of four Members for Bishop's Castle, the votes for each being equal, is first business that must be taken not of, after Parliament meets and is constituted. It takes precedence of ever other whatsoever. The vote which would have cast the balance was refused by the Returning Officer, in the teeth, it is said, of all legal precedent. A youth who was born on the 10th of March, tendered his vote on the 9th, as being 21 years of age on that day; he was rejected, as not being of age till the 10th.

Cockermouth.—In the reign of James II. Sir D. Fleming was elected Member for Cockermouth, after a keenly contested dispute, which cost him 20*l.* A later contest in the year 1768, cost each party at last 50,000*l.* ! !
